

Modern Day Slavery Act 2015 Policy Statement

Roadbridge recognises that slavery and human trafficking remains a hidden blight on our global society. The aim of the company is to identify our responsibility by alerting staff to the risks, however small, in our business and in the wider supply chain. Staff are expected and encouraged to report concerns to management, where they are expected to act upon them.

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern-day slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any parts of our business. This Anti-slavery policy statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

This policy considers, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Integrated Management System, compliant with the requirements of ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and ISO 45001. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy statement. Formal procedures concerning slavery and human trafficking have been established, including disciplinary procedures where they are breached. Additional procedures ensure that this policy is understood and communicated to all levels of the company, and that it is regularly reviewed by the Directors to ensure its continuing suitability and relevance to the company activities.

The company will achieve these aims by our initiative to identify and mitigate risk in the following ways (but not limited to):

- More stringent vetting and investigation of our supply chain (contractors, sub-contractors, Joint Venture partners, etc.)
- Continually audit and review our practices for checking all employees are paid at least the minimum wage and have the right to work;
- We encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistle blowers;
- The company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking;
- We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. We expect all those in our supply chain and contractors to comply with our values.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to relevant members of staff. All Directors have been briefed on the subject. We will use KPI's to measure how effective we have been to ensure that this does not take place and will report the findings as part of the HR027 document. This policy is in accordance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our company Modern Day Slavery and Human Trafficking statement. For transparency, the company will publish this statement on our website.
