

Project Title

Damastown to Cruiserath Link Road

Project Type

Roads / Bridges

Client

Fingal County Council

Company Involvement

The Damastown to Cruiserath Link Road was awarded to Roadbridge in November 2006. Roadbridge undertook the position of the main contractor and PSCS for the construction of the road. Roughan & O'Donovan were the designers.

Form of Contract

IEI Third Edition 1980

Dates

December 2006 – December 2007

Location

Co. Dublin, Ireland

Value

€8.1 Million

Project Description

This project comprised of the following:

- » Construction of a 2km single lane road
- » Bulk excavation quantities of 30,200m<sup>3</sup>.
- » Associated services including foul and surface drainage, ducting and over 2km of 1m diameter watermain
- » Total paved works of 54,684m<sup>2</sup>
- » Construction of 3 new roundabouts in a live traffic environment of a densely populated industrial estate

This project was constructed in a live traffic environment which required extensive traffic management and liaison with local statutory bodies and businesses.